Risk 8

There is a risk that Public Health Wales will fail to deliver and effectively present accurate, relevant data/ statistics and/ or evidence based research/ evaluation to dynamically and actively inform and maximise the impact of public health action especially relating to our response to COVID-19. This will be caused by a lack of workforce capacity with the relevant skills and knowledge to rapidly respond to changing and increasing demands of COVID-19 and technological advances in data science; staff having an over-reliance on existing systems/procedures and a lack of sufficient change capacity.

Dashboard

Risk 8 (COVID)

There is a risk that Public Health Wales will fail to effectively discharge its statutory responsibilities in protecting the public during the COVID-19 pandemic and ensure the organisation has an effective plan for recovery as the pandemic recedes

This will be caused by:

1. Failure to ensure that our role and responsibilities are clearly laid out, effectively communicated to partners and the public and that we frame our response and actions in accordance with these. This will require us to not accept activities that fall outside of our role that result in us vicariously accepting responsibility and accountability for actions that we do not have the authority to enact.
2. Failure to sufficiently scale up our core response activities during the recovery phase of the pandemic in order to effectively support the system in Wales to protect the public, optimise outcomes for individuals and the population, facilitate the functioning of essential services and support the Welsh Government in the reviewing of social restrictions.
3. Failure to effectively balance the dynamics between responding to the ongoing pandemic- which remains the key priority of the organisation, fulfilling our broader statutory functions in relation to the population health (including the safe reactivation of services and functions), whilst preparing and responding to any resurgence in the transmission of coronavirus.
4. Failure to effectively support the health and wellbeing of our staff within the current working environment and the challenges to remote working.
5. Failure to sufficiently influence policy and public health interventions.
