

Equality & Health Impact Assessment for

Adverse Weather Conditions/Transport Disruption Policy

Please read the Guidance Notes in Appendix 1 prior to commencing this Assessment

Please note:

- The completed Equality & Health Impact Assessment (EHIA) must be
 - Included as an appendix with the cover report when the strategy, policy, plan, procedure and/or service change is submitted for approval
 - Published on the UHB intranet and internet pages as part of the consultation (if applicable) and once agreed.
- Formal consultation must be undertaken, as required
- Appendices 1-3 must be deleted prior to submission for approval

Please answer all questions:-

1.	For service change, provide the title of the Project Outline Document or Business Case and Reference Number	N/A
2.	Name of Clinical Board / Corporate Directorate and title of lead member of staff, including contact details	People & Organisational Development Author/Lead Jan Mellowship, Senior HR Adviser
3.	Objectives of strategy/ policy/ plan/ procedure/ service	The objectives of the policy are to reinforce staff's personal responsibility for travel to and from work, to minimise hardship to staff, financially or otherwise, where conditions unavoidably prevent them from reporting to their normal place of work, or where staff are prevented from returning home after a period of duty.

- 4. Evidence and background information considered. For example
- population data
 - staff and service users data, as applicable
 - needs assessment
 - engagement and involvement findings
 - research
 - good practice guidelines
 - participant knowledge
 - list of stakeholders and how stakeholders have engaged in the development stages
 - comments from those involved in the designing and development stages

Population pyramids are available from Public Health Wales Observatory and the 'Shaping Our Future Wellbeing' Strategy provides an overview of health need.

Organisational Profile – in considering the needs assessment of the service users, for those with protected characteristics, it is recognized that ESR will not have the full picture in regard to those with a protected characteristic who have been adversely affected by events of adverse weather/planned travel disruption . The policy applies to all staff and is likely to impact those with a disability, age and pregnant. A breakdown of the age profile of staff in Public Health Wales is shown below and the information we have on staff who have disclosed a disability.

Age Profile

Age	%
<20	0.17%
20-25	4.14%
26-30	9.40%
31-35	12.26%
36-40	13.37%
41-45	13.77%
46-50	15.56%
51-55	16.00%
56-60	10.80%
>60	4.53%

Disability

2% of our staff have indicated that they have a disability, but this information is not known for 51% of staff.

Engagement

In preparing this policy consultation has taken place through the Policy

		Development Group and the JNC.

Equality & Health Impact Assessment

Developing strategies, policies, plans and services that reflect our Vision to 'create a healthier, happier and fairer Wales'

Guidance

The Public Health Wales strategy (Integrated Medium Term Plan) 'Creating a healthier, happier and fairer Wales for everyone' (2016-2019) outlines how we exist to protect and improve health and wellbeing and reduce health inequalities for people in Wales. Our population has varied and diverse needs with some of our communities and population groups requiring additional consideration and support. With this in mind, when developing or reviewing any strategies, policies, plans, procedures or services it will be required that the following issues are explicitly included and addressed from the outset:-

- Equitable access to services
- Service delivery that addresses health inequalities
- Sustainability and how the UHB is meeting the requirements of the Well-being of Future Generations (Wales) Act (2015)¹

This explicit consideration of the above will apply to strategies, policies, plans, procedures and services /activity.

Considering and completing the Equality & Health Impact Assessment (EHIA) in parallel with development stages will ensure that all organisational strategies, policies, plans, procedures or services comply with relevant statutory obligations and responsibilities and at the same time takes forward the organisation's Vision, plan and its strategic priorities. This process should be proportionate but still provide helpful and robust information to support decision making. Where a more detailed consideration of an issue is required, the Integrated Screening Tool will identify if there is a need for a full impact assessment.

¹ <http://thewaleswewant.co.uk/about/well-being-future-generations-wales-act-2015>

Some key statutory/mandatory requirements that strategies, policies, plans, procedures and services must reflect include:

- All Wales Standards for Communication and Information for People with Sensory Loss (2014)²
- Equality Act 2010³
- Well-being of Future Generations (Wales) Act 2015⁴
- Social Services and Well-being (Wales) Act 2015⁵
- Health Impact Assessment (non statutory but good practice)⁶
- The Human Rights Act 1998⁷
- United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child 1989⁸
- United Nations Convention on Rights of Persons with Disabilities 2009⁹
- United Nations Principles for Older Persons 1991¹⁰
- Welsh Health Circular (2015) NHS Wales Infrastructure Investment Guidance¹¹
- Welsh Government Health & Care Standards 2015¹²
- Welsh Language (Wales) Measure 2011¹³

This EHIA allows us to meet the requirements of the above as part of an integrated impact assessment method that brings together Equality Impact Assessment (EQIA) and Health Impact Assessment (HIA). A number of statutory /mandatory requirements will need to be included and failure to comply with these requirements, or demonstrate due regard, can expose the organisation to legal challenge or other forms of reproach. This means showing due regard to the need to:

- eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation;
- advance equality of opportunity between different groups; and
- foster good relations between different groups.

EQIAs assess whether a proposed policy, procedure, service change or plan will affect people differently on the basis of their 'protected characteristics' (ie their age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage or civil partnership, pregnancy or maternity, race, religion, sex or sexual orientation) and if it will affect their human rights. It also takes account of caring responsibilities and Welsh Language issues.

They provide a systematic way of ensuring that legal obligations are met and are a practical means of examining new and existing policies and practices to determine what impact they may have on equality for those affected by the outcomes.

HIAs assess the potential impact of any change or amendment to a policy, service, plan, procedure or programme on the health of the population and on the distribution of those effects within the population, particularly within vulnerable groups. HIAs help identify how people may be affected differently on the basis of where they live and potential impacts on health inequalities and health equity. HIA increases understanding of potential health impacts on those living in the most deprived communities, improves service delivery to ensure that those with the greatest health needs receive a larger proportion of attention and highlights gaps and barriers in services.

The EHIA brings together both impact assessments in to a single tool and helps to assess the impact of the strategy, policy, plan, procedure and/or service. Using the EHIA from the outset and during development stages will help identify those most affected by the proposed revisions or changes and inform plans for engagement and co-production. Engaging with those most affected and co-producing any changes or revisions will result in a set of recommendations to mitigate negative, and enhance positive impacts. Throughout the assessment, 'health' is not restricted to medical conditions but includes the wide range of influences on people's well-being including, but not limited to, experience of discrimination, access to transport, education, housing quality and employment.

Throughout the development of the strategy, policy, plan, procedure or service, in addition to the questions in the EHIA, you are required to remember our values of care, trust, respect, personal responsibility, integrity and kindness and to take the Human Rights Act 1998 into account. All NHS organisations have a duty to act compatibly with and to respect, protect and fulfil the rights set out in the Human Rights Act. Further detail on the Act is available in Appendix 2.

Completion of the EHIA should be an iterative process and commenced as soon as you begin to develop a strategy, policy, plan, procedure and/or service proposal and used again as the work progresses to keep informing you of those most affected and to inform mitigating actions. It should be led by the individual responsible for the strategy, policy, plan, procedure and/or service and be completed with relevant others or as part of a facilitated session. Some useful tips are included in Appendix 3.

Appendix 2 – The Human Rights Act 1998¹⁶

The Act sets out our human rights in a series of 'Articles'. Each Article deals with a different right. These are all taken from the European Convention on Human Rights and are commonly known as 'the Convention Rights':

1. Article 2 Right to life. NHS examples: the protection and promotion of the safety and welfare of patients and staff
2. Article 3 Freedom from torture and inhuman or degrading treatment. NHS examples: issues of dignity and privacy, the protection and promotion of the safety and welfare of patients and staff, the treatment of vulnerable groups or groups that may experience social exclusion, for example, gypsies and travelers, issues of patient restraint and control
3. Article 4 Freedom from slavery and forced labour
4. Article 5 Right to liberty and security. NHS examples: issues of patient choice, control, empowerment and independence, issues of patient restraint and control
5. Article 6 Right to a fair trial
6. Article 7 No punishment without law
7. Article 8 Respect for your private and family life, home and correspondence. NHS examples: issues of dignity and privacy, the protection and promotion of the safety and welfare of patients and staff, the treatment of vulnerable groups or groups that may experience social exclusion, for example, gypsies and travelers, the right of a patient or employee to enjoy their family and/or private life
8. Article 9 Freedom of thought, belief and religion. NHS examples: the protection and promotion of the safety and welfare of patients and staff, the treatment of vulnerable groups or groups that may experience social exclusion, for example, gypsies and travelers
9. Article 10 Freedom of expression. NHS examples: the right to hold and express opinions and to receive and impart information and ideas to others, procedures around whistle-blowing when informing on improper practices of employers where it is a protected disclosure
10. Article 11 Freedom of assembly and association
11. Article 12 Right to marry and start a family
12. Article 14 Protection from discrimination in respect of these rights and freedoms. NHS examples: refusal of medical treatment to an older person solely because of their age, patients presented with health options without the use of an interpreter to meet need, discrimination against UHB staff on the basis of their caring responsibilities at home
13. Protocol 1, Article 1 Right to peaceful enjoyment of your property

¹⁶ <https://www.equalityhumanrights.com/en/human-rights/human-rights-act>

14. Protocol 1, Article 2 Right to education
15. Protocol 1, Article 3 Right to participate in free elections

Tips

- Be clear about the policy or decision's rationale, objectives, delivery method and stakeholders.
- Work through the Toolkit early in the design and development stages and make use of it as the work progresses to inform you of those most affected and inform mitigating actions
- Allow adequate time to complete the Equality Health Impact Assessment
- Identify what data you already have and what are the gaps.
- Engage with stakeholders and those most affected early. View them as active partners rather than passive recipients of your services.
- Remember to consider the impact of your decisions on your staff as well as the public.
- Record which organisations and protected characteristic groups you engaged with, when you engaged with them and how you did so (for example, workshop, public meeting, written submission).
- Produce a summary table describing the issues affecting each protected group and what the potential mitigations are.
- Report on positive impacts as well as negative ones.
- Remember what the Equality Act says – how can this policy or decision help foster good relations between different groups?
- Do it with other people! Talk to colleagues, bounce ideas, seek views and opinions.
