Dental Public Health: Systems leadership and expertise in improving oral health of the population and reducing health inequalities working across organisations and systems in Wales

Professional regulatory bodies

NHS Wales Health Boards Public Health education and care providers

Universities in

We provide strategic advice and support to improve oral health, generate knowledge and enable innovation

Key partnerships and networks locally, regionally, nationally and beyond

Leadership for oral health spanning the three pillars of public health:

Underpinned by dental public health expertise and activities:

Health Improvement

Leading evidencebased oral health improvement across populations and systems

Healthcare Public Health

Advocating and supporting to reduce inequalities and improve value in oral health care systems

Health Protection

Ensuring health protection in dental settings proactively and reactively

Health Intelligence

Generating knowledge to inform dental policy, oral health programmes and services improvement

Workforce Development

Supporting strategic planning and development of workforce to best serve the nation

Training. Education and Research

Providing Dental Public Health training. education, and supporting research in oral health