

Decide on one of the four policy options

Decision making should be structured and involve reviewing the data collected as well as consultation comments, all decisions MUST be evidenced

Seek to consolidate the information obtained in order to make decision making easier

Assess any themes or patterns that arose from the data, and address them in the policy action plan

Create a detailed action plan based on the data and consultation

Consider change management strategies to ensure smooth transition in the practice