

Pathway for Health Boards to support new members of staff, who are already registered with the Down's syndrome Quality Assurance Support Service (DQASS), to commence on the screening programme within Wales.

Please note that the laboratory are not able to process samples from DQASS registered sonographers until they have been informed (via ASW) that they have commenced on the screening programme in Wales.