

21st Welsh Immunisation Conference

Wednesday 24th April 2024
2 Capital Quarter, Tyndall Street, Cardiff

Programme

09:00-09:30	Registration, Tea/coffee, Poster exhibition
09:30-09:40	Welcome and introduction Morning Chair: Dr Chris Johnson: Head of Vaccine Preventable Disease Programme (VPDP), Public Health Wales
09:40-10:00	Opening address - Baroness Eluned Morgan MS, Cabinet Secretary for Health and Social Care
10:00-10:30	The importance of RSV and its prevention – Professor Sir Andrew Pollard
10:30-11:00	Is European Immunization Agenda 2030 an apt means to address immunization inequity in the European Region – Dr Siddhartha Datta
11:00-11:15	Tea/coffee, Poster exhibition
11:15-11:45	It's time to put an end to varicella in children – Professor Adam Finn
11:45-12:15	Horizon 2024 – what's new in travel medicine – Dr Dipti Patel
12:15-12:30	End Of Session Discussion and Summary – Dr Chris Johnson
12:30-13:15	Lunch/Poster Competition
13:15-14:10	Vaccines Save Lives awards ceremony
14:10-14:20	Opening address for afternoon sessions – Sir Frank Atherton, Chief Medical Officer for Wales
14:20-14:50	Hot Topics Session 1 & 2 1. Midwifery Vaccination and Hesitancy: Truth or Tale - Kailey Ben-Sassi 2. Measles - Our experience and learning in Cardiff - Rebecca Stringer and Dan Jones
14:50-15:05	Tea/coffee Poster exhibition – deadline for voting slips to voting station
15:05-15:50	Hot Topics Session 3 - 5 3. The benefits of invitations and reminders for shingles vaccination in General Practices in Wales - Frances Rowley 4. A pilot intervention to improve uptake of Fluenz vaccination in 2-year olds in Cwm Taf Morgannwg UHB - Rhian Meaden and Rhianydd Davey 5. Summary of current issues – Dr Simon Cottrell
15:50-16:10	Closing remarks, Poster competition result, Evaluation Dr Chris Johnson: Head of VPDP, PHW

This event is sponsored by the following pharmaceutical companies in the form of funding towards the production and hospitality. They have had no involvement or influence on the agenda and content.

